NEWS OF THE VICINAGE.

Mrs. W. B. Smith, of Silver Creek, is said to have died of the dread spinal meningitis.

Jim Baughman, George Mahan and Sam McDowell are candidates for sheriff in Boyle county.

The eye of Richard Halstead was gouged out by a piece of timber at the planing mill at Middlesboro.

The Somerset Dramatic Club has secured George Stutzman, of the Nat Reiss Co., as instructor and manager.

William P. Grider, who had been a member of the Baptist church for 71 years, died in Adair, aged 84, says the News.

John E. Haselden, of Lancaster, for a filter, and W. T. Vankirk, of Middlesboro, for a toy pistol, have been granted patents.

The Junction City Maccabees will erect a two-story business building at that place and have the second story for their lodge room.

Bloodhounds were sent for to track the thieves who stole a large lot of merchandise from the store of Jonas Wagers in Madison county.

The body of James Bigelow, of Wayne, who disappeared 10 days ago, was found over the Tennessee line. It is supposed he froze to death.

Jack Lovett, a Williamsburg boy, was killed at the battle of Santiago. He joined the army under an assumed name. News of his death has just been received.

The Somerset council passed an ordinance prohibiting the granting of license to wholesale or retail liquor dealers within a mile of the corporation line of the town.

The court of appeals held in case of P. C. Jett, Pineville, who was fined $100 for the sale of liquor, that the Act of 1884 had been repealed by the adoption of the later Act for the government of fourth class towns.

Will Shelton and George Massie, two infants in the eyes of the law, left their homes at Harrodsburg and at Lexington joined the army. Just as they were about to leave for Anniston, Ala., they were arrested and taken back home.

The faculty of Central University decided the row in the literary societies as to who should be chairman, by naming H. M. Moffett, whose election has been bitterly fought for chairman and fixing to-night for the oratorical test.

The north-bound K. C. passenger train, running at the speed of 40 miles an hour, ran into a land slide near Cynthiana Tuesday, derailing several cars and the engine which were badly injured. All the passengers escaped without hurt.

The Atlanta Limited, which goes a flying, ran against a cross-tie placed on the track near Corinth, and the engine and two cars were derailed, damaging them considerably. Peter Moffett, the engineer, was the only person hurt and his injuries are serious. The escape of the passengers is almost a miracle.

Alice and James Hutchins, infants, have filed suit in the Lancaster circuit court by their father, James Hutchins, against Wm. Furr for $10,000 damages. Furr is postmaster and conducts a general merchandising business at Flatwood. It is alleged in the petition that Furr placed "rough on rats" on articles of food sold in his store, presumably for the destruction of rats, and placed the poison in such a careless manner that the Hutchins children discovered and ate it, narrowly missing death.

A Greenville girl deserves the cake for conundrums. A few evenings since she put the question to her sweetheart, "Why were the boys who left here for the late war like the seat of a man's trousers?" This was a poser, but the young fellow made an effort. "Because," he ventured, "they were worn out in the service." No; that was not it. Then he thought he had it. "Because they were so repeatedly 'sat upon,'" he said. The young lady shook her head. He gave it up and then she informed him that it was "Because they were never intended for the front."—Hartford Herald.

COLORADO RECRUITS.—The war department has wired Lieut. W. T. Johnston, recruiting officer at Lexington, Ky., to enlist colored applicants for cavalry and infantry service, sending the former to Fort Grant, Arizona, and the latter to Fort Douglas, Salt Lake City. This is an excellent opportunity for young colored men to get into the regular army. Recruits for white infantry and cavalry regiments are also wanted. Apply to Lieut. W. T. Johnston, Main St., Lexington, Ky.

The coroner's jury at New York clears up the mystery of the killing of Miss Katherine J. Adams by mercuric cyanide, administered by Harry C. Cornish, by finding that it had been sent in a bottle of bromo seltzer by Roland B. Molineux. The latter was at once put in jail. He is the son of a wealthy Brooklyn man. The attempt was to murder Cornish, of whom he was jealous.

MT. VERNON.

No small-pox here yet, though several are in constant fear of it.

Quite a number of young people attended the social at the college Friday evening.

Mrs. Mary Jones will move to her farm near Pine Hill and Reuben Mullins, of Livingston, will occupy her residence.

A. R. Edwards, of North Carolina, bought a town lot from Willis Adams for $500. This lot is located near the railroad.

The Presbyterian church was filled by an audience interested in temperance work last Sunday night at the Willard Memorial meeting.

The speakers in the declamatory contest at the college Wednesday evening were Misses Fannie Sparks, Nannie Carmical, Minnie Fredricks, Della Arnold, Alma Brooks and Messrs. John Baker, R. Colyer and Grover Price.

Mrs. Margaret Fish has been quite ill at her home at Buckeye. B. F. Fugue has concluded to tempt fortune's smiles in Mt. Vernon and will run a planing mill and other machinery for making plow handles, etc. Mrs. Helen Brooks is visiting her parents.

Prof. Jasper Brown has a good school at Level Green. Prof. Brown's fame as a teacher continues to spread and no faction desires to undermine his good influence. Sam Pennington and wife have moved back to town. County Clerk James Griffin, an officer who attends strictly to his duty, has moved to his new residence on Spring street.

F. Welch is the guest of his brother, D. N. Welch. D. L. Carter is foreman of Langford's stone quarry. Their many friends welcome Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Sparks back to Mt. Vernon this week. John H. Vaughn and Miss Nannie Jones were married at Conway last Wednesday.

KIND WORDS.

AND OTHERS NOT SO KIND.

While W. P. Walton was barking his shins on the rungs of that ladder he doubtless was meditating upon that passage of scripture which says one ought to love his next door neighbor as himself.—Lancaster Record.

The publication of the Stanford INTERIOR JOURNAL was suspended last week on account of a case of small-pox being in the building in which it is printed. The JOURNAL is so good a paper that being deprived of an issue is almost as bad as having the small-pox.—Cloverport News.

The INTERIOR JOURNAL was a little late last week on account of a case of small-pox developing in the same building in which the paper is published. When it came it was as fresh as a May morning—full of spicy reading. During Editor Walton's long reign at the head of this excellent paper, last week was the first time it has ever failed to be mailed at the appointed hour.—Columbia News.

If ever a man answered as well as tongue to the conundrum, "Long legs, short thighs, bald head and no eyes," as Judge French Tipton, of the Richmond Pantagraph, we have never seen him and yet he has the audacity, the brazen effrontery and the unmitigated gall to write this: The sight of Editor Walton, and his gun-barrel legs, crawling into his office by means of a ladder in order to escape the small-pox plague now attendant upon Stanford, must have been worth going miles to see. But the old man, like Spence Cooper, "riz" and come in spite of obstacles. The JOURNAL came to hand, the same appreciated visitor, after a delay of 24 hours. It is hoped Editor Walton and all other good citizens of Stanford, have seen the worst of the scare.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY.

This remedy is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough and influenza. It has become famous for its cures of these diseases, over a large part of the civilized world. The most flattering testimonials have been received, giving accounts of its good works; of the aggravating and persistent coughs it has cured; of severe colds that have yielded promptly to its soothing effects, and of the dangerous attacks of croup it has cured, often saving the life of the child. The extensive use of it for whooping cough has shown that it robs that disease of all dangerous consequences. Sold by Craig & Hoeker, Druggists.

Kittie Higbee, who was once a Kentucky belle, and who lived a dual life, as a courtesan and a strict church member, died at Columbus, O. Her sister, Mrs. Kelley, of Lake View, Ky., was horrified to find the real facts when she went to see the dying woman.

John Benckart, who has just been sent to the lunatic asylum, was several years ago arrested with Dick Perkins and Herman Grey for the murder of Ollie Travis, in Lexington. None of them was convicted. Grey died suddenly and Perkins met death at the hands of George Portwood, who is now serving a life sentence at Frankfort.

MIDDLEBURG.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Spaw are rejoicing over another baby at their house. John French, who lost his wife a short time ago, has been very low with grip, but is much better at this writing.

J. C. Coulter says his brother, W. T. Coulter, had fearful bad luck with his lambs during the cold weather two weeks ago, losing half of them. But it turns out that Willis' lambs were like the editor's hogs, there were but two of them.

A few mornings ago when Enoch Wilkinson, colored, went to feed his hogs, he found that a large raccoon had driven them from their bed and appropriated to his own use, and had to be killed before it would relinquish its claim.

Mr. Joe Williams, of the Mt. Salem section, and Miss Florence Wesley were married Tuesday morning at the residence of Dr. J. T. Wesley, father of the bride. After the ceremony by Rev. F. L. Creech, the bride and groom drove to the home of Dr. John Williams, where a reception was given them.

Some two weeks ago Charley McWhorter and John Spears were out on a horse swapping tour, and while in the Waynesburg vicinity, they met a man riding a very fine mule and Spears proposed to swap his mare for it. The Waynesburg man seemed to admire the mare, after he had examined her closely, and John, thinking he had struck a soft snap, began to chuckle in his sleeve at the prospect of making a good trade. But the man took a second look at the mare and turning to John, said that the trade suited him exactly, and that the mare was a "daisy," but lacked four legs and he was afraid he would not be able to find any to fit her. And putting spurs to his mule, rode away, leaving John gazing at him with astonishment. John tried to hire Charley not to tell, but it was too good to keep. T. S. B.

There are corn buyers by the score, despite the large yield of '98. Prices range from $1.25 to $1.50.

Griver River was on a rampage Sunday but was fordable Monday morning; but as Goose Creek hadn't subsided at Danville we had no mail that day. What fine postal facilities we Caseyites enjoy!

Mr. William Wheat, a prominent merchant of Mt. Salem, and Miss Jennie Williams, a school teacher of this county were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the home of the bride, Yosemite, Sunday, Squire J. A. Wall officiating.

The writer is in receipt of a letter from Private Robert Hale, of the 22nd Infantry, mailed at Honolulu, Feb. 13. Hale was in the 2nd Ky., and he says it was as warm in Hawaii then as it got in Chickamauga last summer. It was on the morning of the 13th that the thermometer registered 33 below at this place. The 22nd was 13 days enroute from Frisco to Honolulu. It was to leave there for Manila the 15th, to arrive at its destination in 21 days. C. C.

$100 REWARD, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, etc. Hall's Family Cure is the best.

CURE FOR SMALL-POX.—A man who has tried it says this is a sure cure or preventive of small-pox: 4 grains digitalis, 8 grains sulphate of zinc; put into a pint of pure water, sweeten with sugar, shake. Dose as preventive, one tablespoonful three times daily, and same dose every two hours when fever is high until fever is controlled. The gentleman adds he never knew this remedy to fail.

BEEMAN'S IRON NERVE.

Was the result of his splendid health. Indomitable will and tremendous energy are not found where stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels are out of order. If you want these qualities and the success they bring, use Dr. King's New Life Pills. They develop every power of brain and body. Only 25 cents at Kelley's Drug Store.

A branch of the anti-vaccination society, which holds that the practice is barbarous and useless, is trying to have an injunction issued against the pupils of public schools in Louisville being forced to vaccinate.

STORY OF A SLAVE.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. Geo. D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by Kelley, Druggist.

Admiral Schley was given a banquet at Baltimore and was presented with a costly medal of gold and diamonds as a testimonial from the people of his native State.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

Harry Howard, aged 17, and Rosa Smith, 15, were married at Huntsville. An insane woman at Rockford, Ill., killed her sick husband with a flat iron.

R. S. Sale, aged 89, a wealthy Georgian, wedded his dead son's young 18-year-old wife at Washington, Pa.

O. P. Alford, Jr., of Lexington, Ky., and Miss Laura Carmichael, granddaughter of the late John Randolph Tucker, were married at Lexington, Va.

Arthur McEwing, of Louisville, was given his choice between marrying a girl or going to the penitentiary. He hesitated, but finally married the girl. Richard Wallace, of Kingston, Tenn., has just married a third sister, i. e. his first two wives were sisters of the present one. This shows plainly that he is stuck on the family.

At Huntington, W. Va., Richard French, 84, and Miss Malissa Brown, 22, were married. It is the first marriage of both, the groom claiming that he was never in love, until he met Miss Brown four months ago.

W. M. Deitzman, late owner of the Louisville Critic, replies to his wife's petition for divorce by alleging improper conduct on her part and an attempt to kill him with arsenic, as the reason for his abandonment.

Ben Way, of Louisville, whose marriage to Miss Grace Taylor, daughter of Richmond's ex-postmaster, last summer, caused a sensation, filed suit for a divorce, alleging force and duress were used to secure the marriage.

William C. Johnson, of Fairview, Ind., and Miss Lena Sweeney, of Bloomington, Ill., met for the first time at a party at the first named place. Two hours after the introduction they slipped off from the crowd and were married.

Mrs. Rella Harber Hume, widow of the late Curtis B. Hume, of the Farmers' National Bank, Richmond, was married to Joseph Joplin, of Omaha, Neb., late of the volunteer army, just returned from Manila. They will reside at Omaha.

A preacher not far away used the following ceremony, after which the unfortunate young man followed the example of the last rose of summer and wilted: "Wilt thou take her for thy pard, for better or for worse, to have, to hold, to fondly guard till hauled off in a hearse? Wilt thou let her have her way, consult her many wishes, make the fire up every day and help her wash the dishes? Wilt thou give her all the stuff her little purse can pack, buy a box and a muff and a seal-skin saccage? Wilt thou comfort and support her father and mother, Aunt Jemima, Uncle John, three sisters and a brother?" And his face grew pale and blank; it was too late to jilt, as through the chapel floor he sank, he sadly said, "I wilt."

An exchange says a gentleman invited some friends to dinner, and as the colored servant entered the room he accidentally dropped a platter which held the turkey. "My friends," said the gentleman in an impressive tone, "never in my life have I witnessed an event so fraught with disaster to the various nations of the globe. In this calamity we see the downfall of Turkey, the upsetting of Greece, the destruction of China and the humiliation of Africa."

A man named Rowland is said to have invented a system of telegraphy by which two ordinary typewriters are connected by electric wires, the instrument at the other end reproducing what is written at this. Its other advantages are immense increases in the distance that messages can be sent, without relaying, the saving of half the number of operators and absolute protection against wire tapping.

Orders have been issued to the hospital ship Relief to sail for Manila at the earliest possible moment, and to move at as good speed as is safe. The rainy season has commenced there and much sickness is expected among our soldiers.

There has been universal interest in the illness of Kipling. Except the President of the United States there is probably no one whose sickness would have occasioned such general interest. It is a tribute to genius. He is now out of danger.

There are now over 250,000 words in the English language acknowledged by the best authorities, or about 70,000 more than in the German, French, Spanish and Italian combined.

The Pullman Palace Car Company is turning out the finest car ever built, to cost $25,000. It is for President Thomson of the Pennsylvania railroad.

Mr. John W. Powling, of the Carlele Mercury, mourns the death of his aged mother, Mrs. Nancy Powling.

It is said that a private of the 4th Ky. returned with $2,500 spot cash won by shooting craps.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - MAR. 3, 1899

W. P. WALTON.

THE 55th Congress, which will put up its shutters for the last time tomorrow, has been one of the most eventful since the civil war. It declared war against a foreign foe, saw it fought to successful issue and ratified the treaty of peace, all within a year. It provided for a great volunteer army, enlarged the regular army and expanded the navy to war emergencies. The tariff was revised by the Dingley bill and afterwards to meet war expenditures in addition to providing for a bond issue. Besides these, Hawaii was annexed and a National bankruptcy bill, which was not needed, was passed. Much other important legislation was enacted, some good, some vicious, but on the whole the expiring Congress did well and will go into history along with the great bodies, though it developed no single man of greatness.

THE Breckinridge News, which by the way is a beautifully printed and excellent paper, has a column headed "The News up to Date," which should be headed instead "News That Was up to Date." In its issue of March 1, under the former head, it publishes verbatim the "Brief News Notation" printed in this paper Feb. 24. It was up to-date then, Brer Babbage, but you couldn't pass it off as fresh on our constituency, after it was a week old, for it demands the news red-hot and often from the wires. We do not object to your using our condensations, but you oughtn't to try to palm it off as up-to-date, when it is a week or two old, even on your hayseed readers.

It looks gloomy for democracy to observe that New York, Maryland, Indiana, West Virginia, New Jersey, and Wisconsin, which were each represented by two democratic Senators four years ago, will be represented entirely by republicans. Among those who will retire tomorrow are Gorman, Turpie, Murphy, Smith, Mitchell, Faulkner, Allen and Roach. The only source of comfort is in the fact that the democrats came near carrying the House, but that too is clouded. The republicans have just enough majority to increase it to their heart's content with contestants who have no claim on seats, except that the party in power needs them for counters.

THE Hartford Herald publishes a list of murders that has occurred in the county in the last 72 years, which shows that 34 human lives have been taken in that time. As that county is not noted for its lawlessness and as its killings may be very conservatively taken as an average, it will be easily figured that 2,042 murders have been committed in the State in the last three score years. Verily human life is the cheapest thing in Kentucky.

THE Senate committee on elections whitewashed Hanna, that is the majority of it, by reporting that there was no evidence sufficient to show that he had obtained his seat by fraudulent means, but the minority contends that there is much in the charges and that a fuller investigation should be made. It will not be made, however, and Hanna will continue to occupy the seat procured by bribery and other disreputable means.

THERE is only one other man in the State that can hold a light to us in the matter of fondness for turnip greens and that is glorious old Dr. John D. Woods, of the Bowling Green Courier. If these few lines should meet his eye, they are to remind him that if he will come and bring a few eggs along, we will scratch around for the greens and jowl, and then—but words fail and go into a yum-yum.

THE enlisted men who are testifying before the Miles court of inquiry are corroborating his statements about the canned beef sent his army, in every respect. They claim that it was nauseating and offensive and unfit for dogs to eat. Unfortunately for themselves and Miles the best witnesses are dead from the effects of eating the meat sent by Eagan under pretense of experiment.

THE Leitchfield people seem to be as easy for the buncoers as a hayseed. A fellow went there, secured the contract for electric lights, hired a few Negroes to dig post holes, lived like a lord, drew on an imaginary New York bank for $2,500, got most of the money and skipped, saying as he did so likely, "Them's the dead easiest bloakes, I ever ran up against."

THE Chicago man, who signs himself Robert Breckinridge Halliban, and claims to be worth $500,000,000, a million of which he proposes to give to the Kentucky University, provided it will perpetuate his name, seems to be either a raving lunatic or a seeker after cheap fame, more likely the former.

THE Louisville Post says: "If Dr. Hunter wants to run for anything we would advise him to run for Central America." A good suggestion, and old gumshoes can't be too quick in adopting it.

How these doctors disagree! The Courier-Journal of yesterday said that Judge Cochran has been decided on for U. S. judge to succeed Barr; the Cincinnati Enquirer had a dead open and shut scoop that Evans was the lucky man and the Commercial Tribune claimed that Judge Holt had a cinch on the plum. We hope the latter paper is right, but as we said before, we fear he is too good a man to be selected.

H. V. MCCHESENEY, county school superintendent of Livingston, and editor of the Livingston Banner, is a candidate for superintendent of public instruction. As he is educationally, politically and otherwise all right and being the only newspaperman in the race, the craft will feel a decided interest in him and do its best to secure him the nomination.

A NEW party to be known as the Union Reform Party, which is to advocate direct legislation under the initiative and referendum system and accomplish many other reforms, has been launched at Cincinnati. As nothing good can come out of that wicked city, the bantling is discredited even before it is fairly born.

THE president seems to be struck on Senator Gray, dem. of Delaware. He sent him to help make a treaty of peace with the Spaniards and now it is said that he will make him a U. S. judge on the expiration of his Senatorial term tomorrow.

IT is stated that Gen. Miles and Secretary Alger are related. His enemies have never said anything worse of the general.

POLITICS AND POLITICIANS.

The Senate unanimously passed the bill appropriating $20,000,000 to pay Spain.

The interest bearing National debt March 1 was $1,040,735,270 and the total debt $1,427,007,904.

Edward P. Thompson, of Indianapolis, Ind., has been selected as postmaster of Havana, Cuba.

After March 4 the Senate will be composed of 55 republicans, 27 democrats and eight populists.

The House military affairs committee has agreed to accept the Senate Army bill without amendment.

There have already been five changes in McKinley's cabinet and he has only been president two years.

Carrollton is to have a $25,000 public building, both Houses of Congress having passed a bill to that effect.

Congressman McIntire, of Baltimore, is under arrest for choking a servant girl, who claimed he owed her $16.

Sagasta, the Spanish premier, and his cabinet have resigned and De Campos has been called to name a cabinet.

The government receipts for February were $38,000,000, a gain over the month of a year ago of nearly $10,000,000.

The bill to make Dewey an admiral, thereby reviving that rank, only needs the signature of the president to make it a law.

At one sitting the House passed 61 bills for public buildings in one horse town, carrying an appropriation of $9,352,000.

Gen. Merritt says: "I found Admiral Dewey a very genial, likeable man, quiet, modest, shrewd, observant, alert and tactful."

A Bryan club has been organized at Perryville and at its meeting on the 25th, Judge R. J. Breckinridge will deliver an address.

If the outage bill had passed, it is said that John B. Thompson, of Harrodsburg, who was the head of the lobby for it, would have gotten $100,000.

The House removed all possibility of an extra session by passing the Senate Army Reorganization bill. The general deficiency appropriation was also passed.

The bill to pay various citizens of Kentucky for property taken during the war by Federal soldiers, which was vetoed by President Cleveland, was made a law by the present Congress Wednesday.

The Nicaraguan bill is almost the only important measure before the present Congress that will not become a law and that is not of a nature that would demand an extra session for its consideration.

The German government has ordered the last of its war ships away from Philippine waters and has formally asked the United States government to assume the protection of German interests in the island.

Auditor Stone was a willing witness for Davison to show the manifest wrong perpetrated by the last Legislature in gerrymandering the district, which he says is shown by the data on file in the office of the secretary of State.

Editor Squire Turner, of the Mt. Sterling Sentinel-Democrat, told a Cincinnati Enquirer man that he is still satisfied that Senator Goebel will be nominated and elected with ease. He will carry that county (Montgomery), in fact, all of the Tenth Congressional district.

Lord Herschell, who was Lord Chancellor of Great Britain, and was sent to the United States because of his eminent attainments to take a leading part in the negotiations designed to settle all existing differences between the United States and Canada, dropped dead at Washington.

Dreyfus is the name of a new post-office in Madison county and J. S. Ogg is in charge.

The House refused to consider the report declaring the seats of Gen. Wheeler and other military Congressmen to be vacant.

Gen. Boynton, who wants to keep his job and retain McKinley's good graces, says that democratic editors hatched the scheme to harass the administration by making Alger a target.

The democratic caucus gave Gen. Wheeler a decided frost when he made a speech declaring that the war was popular and that if the democratic party opposed it the people of the country would be estranged from the disciples of Jefferson. The silence that reigned at its conclusion was large enough to cut.

The compromise Army Reorganization bill was passed by the Senate with only 13 votes in opposition. Mr. Gorman's amendment providing that the army should not be increased permanently, or beyond July 1, 1901, was adopted in slightly modified form. The 13 dissenters were: Bate, Berry, Butler, Caffrey, Chilton, Clay, Daniel, Hoar, Martin, Pettigrew, Turley, Vest and White.

The democratic Congressional caucus adopted resolutions declaring a colonial policy to be "contrary to the theory of our government" and instructing the minority members of the Foreign Affairs Committee to introduce and urge a resolution asserting the purpose of this government to transfer all claim upon the Philippines to an independent native government, as soon as one has been established.

"Kentucky republican never entered upon a State campaign under such favorable conditions as they will this year," says the Hartford Republican. Yes indeed. There are great chunks of harmony in the republican ranks. There's John D. Whitescattering tactics in the bicycle path of Congressman Boreing; John Henry Wilson vowing vengeance on Congressman Pugh; the governor referring to Senator Deboe as a d--n fool; Evans and Todd carrying knives for each other; Jolly putting trouble in the way for Franks' crowd, and factions of the republican party in all sections of the State ready to fly at each other's throats. There are many reasons for believing the republicans will get together when the Kilkenney fight is over.—Paducah News.

The State commissioner of agriculture has received reports from 101 counties in Kentucky, since the recent cold snap, which show that the peach crop is almost completely killed, while apples and other fruits are comparatively uninjured. THE Lancaster people will enjoy "Back on the Farm" tonight, 3rd. We hope that our loss will be their gain.

NEW STORE.—Rev. Ed Hubbard will soon have open a stock of family groceries in a portion of the house he lives in on East Main Street.

HICKS is striking it now. He said that warm rains may be expected 3d to 6th. Storm periods 11th to 18th. Much warmer 21st to 26th. Heavy thunder storm 27th.

W. H. HIGGINS tells us that Tuesday was the dullest day his store ever experienced, but says trade is fast resuming the normal. Other merchants say that business is O. K. again.

If you need a "truss" we can fit you perfectly. Craig & Hocker.

OUR Moreland correspondent is inclined to be facetious with reference to the Hustonville and Moreland electric line. Dr. Alcorn will please take him in tow.

D. A. TWADDLE, of the Kingsville section, who has had the loathsome disease, tells that his services are at the command of the people here if the small-pox spreads.

W. E. PERKINS, Crab Orchard's leading merchant, comes to the front again with an advertisement of plows and all other reasonable farming implements. Give him a call.

THE odor of turnip greens and jowl was in the balmy air of Tuesday, but alas, that indispensable concomitant, poached eggs, could be indulged in only by millionaires and plumbers.

THE $80,000 worth of nominal assets, consisting of notes, &c., of the First National Bank of Middlesboro, was sold by the receiver at auction to R. C. Ford for $750 and they were doubtless high at that.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL is 27 years old to-day, the first issue having been sent out March 3, 1872. We were not present at the announcement but took charge of the youngster when it was three years old.

FROM PORTO RICO.—Reuben Engleman is in receipt of a box of game chickens from Porto Rico, sent him by his son, Bub, who was there with Capt. Penny's company. They are smaller than our games, but have every appearance of fighters.

MARCH came in like the mildest kind of a little lamb, and has since been behaving in that way till this morning, when after a thunder storm, it began to rain but soon faded off. The mercury has staid in the 60s for two or three days and at 7 this morning was 52.

THE Buffalo Springs Cemetery Co. held a meeting Wednesday to fill the vacancy caused by the death of one of its original directors, Capt. Geo. H. McKinney. Mr. A. A. McKinney was chosen director and Mr. J. B. Paxton made secretary, the office that the old captain filled so long and so well.

ONLY one man has closed his business house during the small-pox scare and that was Ed Wilkinson, the barber. He got scared and took to the woods Friday last, but returned and opened up again Tuesday. A good many of us had as well have shut down, however, for he is the exception, rather than the rule, who has made expenses.

THE harvesting machine men are getting in their work, notwithstanding wheat cutting is a third of a year off. James B. Owens, representing the McCormick; J. L. Totten, the Champion; Frank Holtzclaw, the Osborne, and J. T. Finch, the Deering, are almost everywhere at the same time. Lincoln county farmers, who do not wish to be drummed to death, will buy machines in self-defense.

MCALISTER.—Friends here were shocked yesterday to receive the news of the death of Little Horace Withers McAlister, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McAlister, of St. Joseph, Mo. The handsome little fellow died of meningitis. The parents decided not to bring the remains here for interment, but to bury them there. The tenderest sympathy is felt here for them in their great loss, which a parent clone can appreciate.

INVENTIONS.—Frank Martin, of Stanford, has invented and patented a farm gate latch, which is a most ingenious contrivance. The only objection to it is that it is rather complicated and that reason may prevent its general adoption. A model of it is at the shop of Mr. F. G. Brady, who is something of an inventor himself. He has also invented a gate latch for yards and farms, which is both simple and inexpensive, and is thinking of having it patented. It costs from $65 to $100 to procure a patent and that keeps many a poor inventor from obtaining letters.

CIRCUIT court met Tuesday when the day's docket was called. Of the 47 Commonwealth cases 18 were continued, 8 dismissed and one filed away. As 24 of the defendants indicted were not found, but few cases will be left for trial. A good deal of routine equity business has been done, but none of public importance. The case of James Hocker vs. the L. & N. and B. F. Arnold against the same road, were set for the 10th. A dozen or so cases were dismissed settled and that of J. P. Davis vs. H. J. Darst stricken from the docket as the defendant has taken the bankrupt law.

GARDEN seed in bulk and package and seed potatoes at Beazley & Carter's.

SALE.—Dr. E. J. Brown has bought of Judge W. E. Varnon his pretty home on Logan Avenue for $1,700 cash. He will get possession April 1st.

$25 REWARD.—M. S. Baughman tells us that he will give $25 reward for the scamps who have made two visits to his hen house this week and appropriated a round dozen of his fine Indian game chickens. He tracked them to Rowland and is still looking for them this morning. Woe be unto them if he catches them.

PAYMENT LONG DELAYED.—By a bill which has just passed both Houses of Congress, the following people of this section will receive money for property taken from them by Federal soldiers during the war: M. J. Harris, administrator of his father, Morris J. Harris, $777; Jacob H. Russell $145 and James Doolin, Pulaski, $218.

DR. J. G. CARPENTER has been engaged to deliver a course of lectures on Diseases of Women, Abdominal and Pelvic Surgery, in the Barnes Medical College, St. Louis, Mo. Will be absent 30 days and return to his practice. Drs. J. F. Peyton and E. J. Brown will attend to his office and hospital practice here while he is gone.

SWAPPED STORES.—The Nicholasville Journal says: F. L. Wallin, of Crab Orchard, and J. J. Brooks, of this place, have exchanged drug stores, the former assuming charge of the business here in the Mizner block last Monday. Mr. Brooks, who goes to Crab Orchard, leaves a host of friends here who wish him much success in his new home.

OFF.—That charming rural comedy, "Back on the Farm," with brass band and orchestra attachments, has been booked ever since last summer to play at Walton's Opera House, March 3rd. Its representative came prepared for billing, but the management thought that out of respect to the small-pox it was best to declare the performance off. The company will go to Lancaster instead and we hope be liberally patronized.

TAKEN TO CLAY.—Sheriff B. P. White, Jr., and D. W. White, deputy, took Jim and Dee Baker, who have been here for safe-keeping, to Clay county yesterday, to be tried for the murder of Wilson Howard. The murder was committed last April and is one of the many that has been committed since the Baker-Howard feud commenced. Sheriff White says that there are 8 or 10 murder cases on the docket of the Clay circuit court and civil cases world without end.

A MORGAN.—A curious looking bird of the duck species, was killed on Dix river Wednesday by Thomas Huffman. Sportsmen had been after it for several days and many shots were fired at it without effect, its compact feathers seeming to turn them like steel plates. The species is said to hail from the Arctic regions and it is possible that the one under consideration happened along during the February blizzard and remarking that Kentucky was cold enough for him, decided to bide a wee.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE.—Mrs. A. S. Orear, of Excelsior Springs, Mo., who was Miss Bettie Dennis, has developed into a Christian Scientist and the Journal of that city devotes a column to a reading room that the system has opened there. Mrs. Orear says she became a student of the theory nine years ago and has since graduated and received a certificate. She knew it was God's work then and is daily more and more convinced that it is the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, adding that Christian Science healing is no miracle, but a proof of God's power and presence. Any christian should be able to heal the sick, which is done by realizing that there is no power in self but that God is omnipotent and omnipresent. Nearly 200 cases have been treated and cured by Christian Science at Excelsior Springs.

THE small-pox having played a nine-day sensational engagement seems to have lapsed into innocuous desuetude. Sowder is the only man here to have it and Dr. Bailey says he is getting well fast, sitting up and beginning to scale. He also says that as the disease is only slightly contagious in its first stages, and a sufficient time having elapsed for new cases to develop, he is of opinion that there will be no more here. The Negro at Walnut Flat said to have the disease was isolated and Dr. W. J. Edmiston put in charge of him. He is doing well and while there are reports of other cases in the neighborhood, they are doubtless untrue. Mr. W. M. Dudderar, who was said to have caught the disease from Mr. Sowder en route from Columbus, O., was here Wednesday, showing no signs of infection. There now seems to be no danger here and people can come to town with impunity. All the churches will have services Sunday.

Pulaski, Pulaski county, has a new postmaster, M. G. Higgins.

David Bowman, a Richmond grocer, drank a pint of whisky at one sitting and was found in a dying condition, but doctors with a stomach pump saved him.

COUNCIL DOINGS.—At the council meeting last night Roberts & Carr were granted saloon license for another year. Mayor Menefee was added to the street committee and $100 added, making that appropriation now $300. The opening of the street from Lancaster to Danville streets was discussed by Col. W. G. Welch, representing Miss Mary Varnon, advocating, and Hon. Harvey Helm, his own interests, opposing, and a committee composed of Messrs. Elmore and Hundley appointed to see as to costs etc., and report next meeting. A settlement with Marshal Newland showed that he is now due the town $1,432.72 taxes after deducting his commission and the delinquent list.

RELIGIOUS MATTERS.

The Methodists are preparing to build a $200,000 hospital at Chicago.

Rev. Mordecai Ham, nearly 90 years old, and the oldest minister in Warren county, is dead.

The Adair News says that Revs. Kilgore and Johnson's meeting at Carmel has so far resulted in 30 confessions.

Eld. J. S. Sweeney, of Paris, began a protracted meeting Sunday at Eld. Zach Sweeney's church in Richmond, Va.

A Baptist minister of West Virginia and two neighbors fought over some rails, and the preacher was fatally wounded.

William F. Stanley, a son of Elder William Stanley, of Glasgow, was killed at Manila. He belonged to a Montana regiment.

There will be services at all the churches Sunday and we are asked particularly to say the Baptist and Christian churches will be open.

The Central Methodist could not run without Rev. Zephaniah Meek as editor and he is again at the helm, with Dr. J. W. Lewis as associate.

A Zulu, whose mother and father are savages in African jungles, was ordained a minister at New York and will return to Zululand to try to christianize his kin.

The chapel of St. Helena at Bethlehem contains 44 marble columns, which were taken from Mount Moriah and supposed to have been in the porches of Solomon's temple.

Miss Bessie Berry was baptized at Pineville while the river was full of floating ice. This might be called getting cold comfort out of religion, says the Louisville Times.

Eggs dropped from 50 to 17c a dozen in Cincinnati in a day. The South sent on big cargoes.
